

DEPUTY INVESTIGATOR

North Dakota Stockmen's Association
407 S. Second St. • Bismarck, ND 58504
(701) 223-2522 • www.ndstockmen.org

The North Dakota Stockmen's Association is seeking a hardworking, motivated individual to enforce the state's livestock laws, protect producers against livestock loss and theft and support other members of the brand inspection team. The successful candidate must be willing to locate in central North Dakota. The position involves daily travel, including some overnight stays, within the state.

Skills:

Applicants must be knowledgeable of the livestock industry and brand inspection and have strong organizational, communication and interpersonal skills.

Responsibilities:

The Deputy Investigator will have these primary responsibilities:

- Train and support local brand inspectors.
- Investigate infractions related to livestock brand inspection statutes and regulations.
- Serve as a liaison between law enforcement agencies and the North Dakota Stockmen's Association.
- Inspect livestock in transit.
- Conduct local brand inspections and assist with inspection duties at auction markets, production sales and scales.
- Inspect registered feedlots.
- Maintain accurate records, including daily, investigative and other reports.

Qualifications:

Applicants should have their peace officer's license or be willing to complete a 12-week law enforcement training course at the Law Enforcement Training Academy. Applicants must also demonstrate a strong work ethic and a commitment to the objectives of the organization.

Compensation:

The Deputy Investigator will be offered a competitive compensation and benefits package, including health insurance and a 401(K) savings plan with a company match.

To Apply:

Applicants should send a cover letter, resume and three reference names to: North Dakota Stockmen's Association, 407 S. Second St., Bismarck, ND 58504. The deadline is Nov. 25, 2018.

Timeline:

The Deputy Investigator position is expected to be filled in December 2018.