Stockmen's Foundation offers two collegiate scholarships

The North Dakota Stockmen's Foundation (NDSF) is offering two $500 scholarships to college sophomores attending an accredited North Dakota college or university. Among other criteria, applicants must be North Dakota students who are enrolled in a beef-related field of study, including but not limited to animal or range science, agricultural economics, agricultural communications or veterinary medicine.

Application forms and scholarship details are available on the re-designed www.ndstockmen.org or by calling the NDSF at (701) 223-2522. The application deadline is March 31.

Scholarships will be awarded during the NDSA's Annual Convention & Trade Show set for Sept. 23-25, 2010, in Minot, N.D.

Last year's recipients were Levi Rue of Sheyenne and Nickolas Hart of Chaseley.

The NDSF was designed to assist with beef-related research, education, leadership and building objectives. To make a tax-deductible donation, call (701) 223-2522 or visit www.ndstockmen.org
