Additional Brand Transfer Information

In the event that a brand owner dies, the brand must be transferred to remove his or her name from the record. Refer to the conjunction used to adjoin names on the current brand recording for additional instructions on how to remove a deceased person's name from the record.

In a Decedent's Name Alone, will require the personal representative of the estate to authorize the transfer of the brand on behalf of the deceased person.

- The personal representative of the estate will sign on behalf of the decedent.
- A copy of the letter of testamentary must accompany the Brand Bill of Sale and Application for Brand Recording.
- If no probate occurred, an affidavit for collection of personal property may be submitted.

"And" = Tenants in Common, which means that all owners on the brand will need to sign a bill of sale, market clearance, etc. It will also mean that, in the event that a brand owner dies, his or her portion of the brand will then be assumed by his or her estate.

- The personal representative of the estate will sign on behalf of the decedent.
- A copy of the letter of testamentary must accompany the Brand Bill of Sale and Application for Brand Recording.
- If no probate occurred, an affidavit for collection of personal property may be submitted.

"And/Or" = Joint Tenancy and Tenants in Common, which means that any owner on the brand can sign a bill of sale, market clearance, etc. It will also mean that, in the event that a brand owner dies, his or her portion of the brand will then be assumed by his or her estate.

- The personal representative of the estate will sign on behalf of the decedent.
- A copy of the letter of testamentary must accompany the Brand Bill of Sale and Application for Brand Recording.
- If no probate occurred, an affidavit for collection of personal property may be submitted.

"Or" = Joint Tenancy, which means that any owner on the brand can sign a bill of sale, market clearance, etc. It will also mean that, in the event that a brand owner dies, his or her portion of the brand will then be assumed by the remaining brand owners.

- A Request for Removal of Decedent from Brand Record must be signed by the party requesting the deceased person's name be taken off the brand. This form must be notarized.
- A copy of the death certificate or death record must accompany the Request for Removal.
